Funeral Aftercare

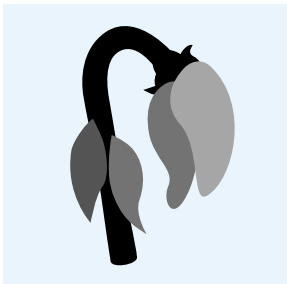

Emotional Matters and Paperwork To-do List

It has been an exhausting time the past few days. Take some time to catch up with yourself and rest physically and emotionally Talk freely about fond memories of your loved one. A loved one's passing is not the end. They still live in your memories.

Give yourself time to grieve over your loss. We grieve as much as we love, for there is no grief without the precious memories we have made through the years.

*You will not 'get over' the loss of a loved one;
you will learn to live with it.*

You will heal and you will rebuild yourself around the loss you have suffered.

*You will be whole again
but you will never be the same.*

Nor should you be the same nor would you want to.

Emotional Matters and Paperwork To-do List

Certain administrative duties should be done over the years. Execute wills or distribute assets and inform the appropriate authorities of your loved one's passing. Details are listed below

01

If a will belonging to the deceased was left behind, do prepare to execute the will. If not, do find a specialist or lawyer who may help you with the procedures.

02

CPF will send a notification to the next-of-kin on the process of withdrawing the remaining CPF from the account.

03

Should the deceased own a HDB that is jointly owned with their spouse, if the spouse is still alive, do report the death to HDB so that the name is stricken off the deed
